

they shall be tried de novo, and all such appeals shall be taken in such manner as is now provided for by law in other cases of appeals from judgments of justices of the peace.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 176. 1892, ch. 334. 1904, ch. 640. 1914 Code, sec. 267.

354. The several justices of the peace of Anne Arundel County, except the justices of the peace appointed for the City of Annapolis, or Sixth District, are required to account for and to pay over to the County Commissioners of said county, every three months, all the money or moneys they may have on hand at such times, arising from fees or penalties imposed under the preceding sections; but, provided, if at any time the amount of such fines or penalties shall exceed the sum of twenty dollars, then such report must be made monthly, accompanied with the report of the constable or constables serving process issued by such justice of the peace.

1892, ch. 334. 1914 Code, sec. 268.

355. The justices of the peace of the Sixth District of said county shall at the first regular meeting of the County Commissioners held in each month, make a report in writing verified under oath made before the clerk of said Commissioners, of all criminal cases heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each case the name of the defendant, the offence charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name of the officer serving warrant and summonses, the judgment rendered, the amount of fine or penalty imposed, the amount of costs taxed and the amount of fine, penalty and costs including constables' fees which the said justices are hereby required to collect, shall at the time of his making said report be paid to the order of said County Commissioners; and said justices of the peace at the first meeting in every month of the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis shall also make a similar report, as hereinbefore provided of all cases tried before them for offences committed under the Code of the City of Annapolis, and shall pay over to the order of said Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed and collected by him for any violations of said City Code, and also all costs incurred in such cases and collected, including constables' fees which the said justices are hereby required to collect.

1904, ch. 604. 1914 Code, sec. 269.

356. The justices of the peace (such reports of both constables and justices of the peace shall be made under oath), of Anne Arundel County, except the justices of the Sixth District and the police justice of the Fifth Election District, shall be entitled to charge for their services in all criminal cases tried or heard before them, the following fees, to wit: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses, both sides, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment,