

twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for each recognizance in each case, including witnesses, twenty-five cents. But in no case shall any other than one fee be allowed where several warrants are issued growing out of or from one incident or disturbance; the trial shall be so held as to hear all parties concerned, and but one fee of costs be allowed by the County Commissioners. The fees for services of the justices of the peace of the Sixth District, and in Brooklyn, Fifth District, shall be the same as herein allowed the justices of the peace of other districts, but shall be taxed, collected and accounted for by them in preceding sections of this Act.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 176E. 1914 Code, sec. 272.

357. The justices of the peace of the Second Election District other than the police justice shall be allowed the fees now allowed by law for issuing any warrant of arrest or summons, for witnesses in criminal cases, but no other fees for the hearing or trial of any criminal cases, or for the commitment of any person charged or tried, shall be allowed such justice of the peace, nor shall the County Commissioners allow any constable or officer making arrest, either without a writ under a warrant or for making return of any criminal process or service of summons for witnesses, unless the person arrested is brought before the said police justice, or the process served is returned before him as hereinbefore provided.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 176F. 1914 Code, sec. 273.

358. The Police Justice of the first precinct of the Second District of the said county shall be at the first regular meeting of the County Commissioners, held in each month, make a report in writing, verified under oath made before the clerk of said Commissioners or one of the Commissioners, of all criminal cases heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each case the name of the defendant, the offense charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name of the officer serving the warrant and summons, the judgment rendered, the amount of fine or penalty imposed, the amount of costs taxed, which shall include all constable's costs and constable's fees, where process is served by police officers acting with authority of constables, and the amount of fine and costs collected by him, and all such fines and costs, including constables' and officers' fees for serving warrants, and all other process which in all cases shall be properly taxed and collected, shall, at the time of making his report, be paid to the order of the County Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 177. 1914 Code, sec. 274.

359. The several justices of the peace of Anne Arundel, Allegany, Montgomery, Prince George's, Harford, Calvert, Wicomico, Caroline, Talbot, St. Mary's, Garrett, Howard, Somerset, Washington, Dorchester, Kent, and Charles Counties shall have, in addition to the jurisdiction which they now possess, and which may be conferred upon them by or under the
