

1904, ch. 219, sec. 56H. 1906, ch. 112, sec. 56H.

71. The bailiff appointed for the enforcement of the ordinances of the town and the preservation of its peace and good order shall have all the powers of constables; and any person resisting a bailiff in the discharge of his duty shall be liable, upon conviction, to punishment in the same measure and to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable, and any bailiff so appointed who shall be guilty of official misconduct shall be proceeded against by presentment and indictment in the Circuit Court for Washington county, and if found guilty shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the Court; he shall receive for his services the same fees as are allowed by law to constables for similar services, or he shall receive a salary not exceeding fifty dollars per annum, in the discretion of the Council.

1904, ch. 219, sec. 56-I.

72. The Burgess and Council shall have power to provide for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening or closing up in whole or in part any street, highway, square, lane, alley, sewer, sanitary sewer, drain, or water course, within the bounds of said town, which in their opinion public convenience may require.

1904, ch. 219, sec. 56J.

73. Whenever the Burgess and Council shall direct any street, highway, lane, alley, square, sewer, sanitary sewer or watercourse, or part thereof, within the limits of the town to be laid out, opened, extended, widened, straightened, or closed up, in whole or in part, the Burgess and Council shall give at least ten days' notice, by handbills posted in at least fifteen conspicuous places in the town, of their purpose to lay out, open, extend, widen, straighten or close up the street, highway, lane, alley, square, sewer, sanitary sewer, drain or watercourse so directed to be laid out, opened, extended, widened, straightened or closed up, and of the day, hour and place of their meeting for said purpose, and the said Burgess and Council shall meet at the time and place mentioned in the notice given by them and proceed to exercise the powers and perform the duties assigned to and required of them, and to ascertain whether any and what amount in value of damages will be caused thereby, for which the owner or occupant of any right or interest claimed in any ground or improvements ought to be compensated over and above the amount in value of benefit which will thereby accrue to such owner or occupant and to ascertain what amount of benefit will thereby accrue to any lot or parcel of ground within or adjacent to said town or to the owner or occupant thereof, and which said lot or parcel of ground or the owner or occupant thereof ought to pay.

1904, ch. 219, sec. 56K.

74. Whenever the Burgess and Council shall have proceeded to execute the powers conferred in the preceding section, they shall have prepared an explanatory map which shall contain a correct description of the street, highway, lane, alley, square, sewer, sanitary sewer, drain or watercourse so
