

warrant shall be issued by any justice of the peace for the Sixth District of Anne Arundel County to any constable on the oath or affirmation of any police officer of the City of Annapolis.

See sec. 360.

1892, ch. 334. 1914 Code, sec. 278.

364. The duly elected and bonded police officers of said City of Annapolis are hereby invested with full power and authority of county constables without pay other than that received from said city in all criminal offenses occurring in said city, but they shall not have any jurisdiction in civil cases.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 178F. 1914 Code, sec. 280.

365. The Police Justice of the said first precinct of the said Second District of said county, for his services in criminal cases, shall receive from the County Commissioners the sum of thirty-five dollars per month and the additional sum of five dollars for office rent, payable in cash or by levy equivalent to cash, on the day of his making his report, as hereinbefore provided, and he shall not receive, directly or indirectly, any other fees or compensation in criminal cases or cases of violation of any of the laws of this State, and all fees of constables for service of process in criminal cases in the First Precinct of the Second District shall be paid by the County Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 179. 1914 Code, sec. 281.

366. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of Section 363, shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the County Commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county, and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1908, ch. 524. 1914 Code, sec. 282.

367. There shall be only two justices of the peace appointed for the Second Election District, one to reside in the First Precinct and the other to reside in the Second Precinct of said district, and immediately after the passage of this Act it shall be the duty of the Governor to designate one of the justices of the peace of the Second District of Anne Arundel County, now appointed, as police justice of the First Precinct of the Second District, to hold his office as police justice until his successor is duly appointed according to law.
