

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 96. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 85. 1910, ch. 510, sec. 96 (p. 1179).
1924, ch. 35. 1927, ch. 342.

144. The County Clerk shall receive for his services an annual salary of twenty-four hundred dollars ($2,400.00) and no more, payable in equal monthly installments by the County Commissioners of Washington County, and the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to levy the needful taxes on the assessable property within the county liable to taxation as shall be sufficient to pay said salary.

1910, ch. 510, sec. 97 (p. 1179).

145. The county clerk shall at all reasonable times permit any taxpayer of the county to examine and make copies of any books, papers, records and accounts pertaining to the business of the County Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 93. 1876, ch. 83.

146. He is authorized and empowered to administer an oath or affirmation to any person presenting a claim to said commissioners against the county, for which service he shall not be entitled to make any charge, the same being hereby made a part of his official duty.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 99. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 87.

147. The county commissioners, in cases of visitation from cholera or like epidemics in said county, may provide for the payment of all expenses that may be incurred in procuring temporary hospitals and attendance upon the poor of said county who shall become the victims thereof.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 100. 1886, ch. 325.

148. They are authorized and empowered to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of criminals for offenses committed within said county, whenever in their judgment the nature and character of the offense will warrant it, and to levy upon the assessed property of the county to pay the same; provided, however, that the reward to be paid in any one case shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 101. 1878, ch. 3. 1914, ch. 94, sec. 101.

149. When they make their levy, said levy shall not be made in gross, but shall designate the particular heads for which it is to be expended, and they shall specify therein what per centum is levied for school purposes, what per centum for bonded indebtedness of said County, what per centum for court purposes, what per centum for road purposes, and what per centum for each particular head, for which expenditure is to be made, specified by them; and they shall not, in any one year, levy on the assessable property of the County more than five cents on the one hundred dollars thereof for general purposes, which latter shall include all matters not embraced under any of the particular or specified heads or headings. In no event shall the money levied for one purpose be expended for any other purpose.
