ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art 22, sec. 122. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 91.

171. Washington County is divided into twenty-three* election districts, according to their present names, bounds and limits, and all elections for public officers shall be held in the said districts, at the places therein heretofore established by law for that purpose.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 123. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 92. 1892, ch. 176. 1896, ch. 23.

172. The County Commissioners shall have power and authority to create new election districts in addition to those already established, whenever, in their judgment, the convenience of the voters of the county or any part thereof will thereby be promoted; and shall also have power to abridge or enlarge any districts heretofore established by the Legislature or which may hereafter be established by said commissioners; and shall have the further power to designate the places of holding the election polls in all election districts.

See Art. 33 of Annotated Code for general election law, which probably superseded this section.

1920, ch. 160, sec. 1.

173. There is hereby created and established a new election district in Washington County, Maryland, to be known as the Halfway Election District, or Election District Number Twenty-six of said Washington County, and to be formed of parts of Election Districts Numbers Three and Twenty-four, two of the Hagerstown Election Districts, and Election District Number Two, Williamsport Election District, and Election District Number Ten, Funkstown Election District, and the polling place of said new election district shall be in the village of Halfway.

1920, ch. 160, sec. 2.

174. The new election district so as to be created and established shall be within the following metes and bounds and practically by the following courses, that is to say: Beginning at the point where the public road leading from Funkstown to what was until recently the Hagerstown and Williamsport Turnpike Road crosses what was until recently the Hagerstown and Downsville Turnpike Road, then following said Hagerstown and Downsville Turnpike Road in a southwesternly direction to the farm of Emily Beckley at a point where the public road running from said Hagerstown and Downsville Turnpike Road to said Hagerstown and Willamsport Turnpike Road "leaves said Hagerstown and Downsville Turnpike Road," then following said public road all the way through to the point where it meets said Hagerstown and Williamsport Turnpike Road at the farm of Edward C. Doub, then following said Hagerstown and Williamsport Turnpike Road to the public road running by the Samuel B. Loose farm, then following said public road in a northernly direction by the old

*There are now 26 districts, as indicated by sec. 173.
