

every case to be computed from the ground or base of any embankment upon which said fence may be placed.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 129. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 98.

181. If either of the parties so making or keeping a joint fence, shall not comply with the provisions of the preceding section, and shall refuse or delay to make or repair the said fence within twenty days after notice in writing shall be given to him or his agent, overseer or tenant, upon proof thereof before a justice of the peace, the said justice may, under his hand and seal, authorize the party aggrieved by such refusal or delay, to make or repair the said fence as above required, and for so doing, he shall be reimbursed all costs and reasonable expenses necessarily incurred, to be recovered from the party so delaying or refusing, in the same manner as debts of like amounts are recoverable.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 130. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 99.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 131. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 100.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 132. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 101.

184. In all actions and suits to recover damages for trespass upon lands in said county, by any kind of live stock, the defendant may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence; and the plaintiff shall be non-suited whenever it shall be clearly proven that the lands whereon the trespass shall be alleged to have been done or committed, were not enclosed according to the provisions of section 180 of this sub-title of this article.
