

1894, ch. 399, sec. 254C.

208. The several turnpike companies owning roads running into the town may cede to the town such parts of their roads as lie within the limits of the town, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the burgess and commissioners and said companies, and the same when ceded shall in all respects be subject to the same regulations as the public streets of the town.

1894, ch. 399, sec. 254D.

209. The burgess and commissioners shall not contract any debt or liability, unless they shall have beforehand, by levy of taxes or other lawful methods, provided for the payment thereof; and in no case shall they allow the aggregate amount of the liabilities or indebtedness of said corporation to exceed its cash assets more than two hundred dollars.

1894, ch. 399, sec. 254E.

210. All ordinances heretofore passed by the burgess and commissioners of Funkstown, and now in force, and not in conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby continued in force until the same are repealed or modified.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 255. 1870, ch. 452. 1896, ch. 465. 1929, ch. 305.

211. The Burgess and Commissioners of Funkstown shall levy, annually, an equal tax on the taxable property, both real and personal, in such an amount, not to exceed seventy (70) cents on every one hundred dollars' worth of taxable property in said town, as they may deem necessary and proper for the various needs and purposes of the town. The Burgess, with the approval of the Commissioners, shall appoint a collector to collect the tax so levied and prescribe his term of office and compensation, which said collector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall be required to give bond with a surety or sureties for the faithful performance of his duties, in such an amount as may be deemed adequate by said Burgess and Commissioners, said bond to be approved by said Burgess and Commissioners. Such taxes, when levied, shall be a lien upon property, as now provided by law as to State and County taxes, and shall be collected as State and County taxes are collected, and in addition thereto the said collector shall also have the power to collect said taxes by an action of debt before a Justice of the Peace, with the right to either of the parties to the action to appeal to the Circuit Court for Washington County.

1896, ch. 465, sec. 255A.

212. All property within the taxable limits of the town of Funkstown or that may have a situs there, by reason of a residence of the owner therein, shall be taxed for municipal purposes and the assessment for town purposes shall be the same as that for State and county purposes, and in case any real estate assessed for State and county purposes be divided by the town boundaries, the Burgess and commissioners shall place a fair valua-
