

Funkstown" shall fix and designate the date when the said provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said town at such regular or special election.

1929, ch. 67, sec. 4.

224. The manner of submission shall be, that, on the ballots at said regular town election or at any subsequent election, there shall be printed the words "For Water Bonds" and "Against Water Bonds," with a blank square opposite at the right in each case for the cross (X) mark of the voter. All the voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words "For Water Bonds" and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words "Against Water Bonds." If at the regular or any subsequent town election held under the provisions of this Act, the majority of votes cast shall be "For Water Bonds," then the provisions of this Act shall immediately go into effect, and the "Burgess and Commissioners of Funkstown" may proceed at any time to execute the powers vested in them by the provisions of this Act. In case the majority of votes cast at the regular or any subsequent election held under the provisions of this Act shall be "Against Water Bonds" the "Burgess and Commissioners of Funkstown" shall resubmit the provisions of this Act to the qualified voters of said town at the next regular election to be held in said town to be called under the provisions of this Act, in the manner hereinbefore provided.

If the majority of the votes cast at the second election shall be "For Water Bonds," then this Act shall immediately go into effect; but if a majority of votes cast at said second regular election held under the provisions of this Act shall be "Against Water Bonds," then, and in that event, this Act shall be null and void. All the provisions of law governing elections in said town are hereby made applicable to said elections, under the provisions of this Act as fully as if they were incorporated therein, except as they be contradicted by or are repugnant to the provisions of this Act, and except further that it shall not be necessary, before holding any such election as herein provided, to have any registration of voters or any revision of the poll books of said town.

The judges of election at said elections shall at the close of the polls on said election day cast up the votes and make certificate of the same in the usual form and forward the said certificate and return the ballots to the Clerk of the Court for Washington County, and upon receipt by said Clerk of the said certificate and ballots he shall make proclamation of the result by publication in one newspaper published in said county.

225. If the result of any of said elections shall be in favor of the bond issue, then the Burgess of Funkstown, as soon after this Act becomes effective, as it is possible so to do, by and with the advice and consent of the Commissioners of said town, shall (immediately) appoint from the residents who are bona fide property owners and taxpayers of said town,
