

or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating liquors of any kind, with intent to sell or give away the same at his, her, their or its place of business, in violation of law, or with intent that the same shall be sold or given away by any person, in violation of law, or in aid of any person for such purposes; and any person, company, corporation or association, violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to the like fines and punishments as are prescribed for violation of the preceding section.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 182. 1914 Code, sec. 287.

383. Nothing in said two preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors for medicinal purposes by a pharmacist or druggist who shall or may obtain a license under the license law of the State, upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular practicing physician, whose name shall be signed thereto; and all such prescriptions shall be filed and kept by the pharmacist or druggist; and no prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, and such liquor is absolutely required as a medicine. Any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for such liquor, except as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of said section, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for the first offense, and not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars for each subsequent offense; and if the buyer shall obtain a prescription by misrepresentation, he shall likewise be deemed guilty of a violation of said section, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the same fines as the physician who shall violate the same; the one-half of said fines to be paid to the informer, and the residue to the Board of Public School Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, for the use of the public schools; and said violators shall be committed to the county jail of said county till such fines and costs are paid; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit a sale by a pharmacist or druggist, in case of extreme illness, when delay may be dangerous to the patient.

384. All prosecutions for violation of the three preceding sections, which are declared to be criminal offences, shall be by presentment or indictment; and the State's Attorney and justices of the peace having knowledge of any previous conviction of any person accused of violating the same, in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments, shall allege therein such previous conviction, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Circuit Court to furnish such information to the State's Attorney and grand jury; but it shall not be necessary to set forth particularly in any such presentment or indictment the record of the former conviction, but it shall be sufficient to allege briefly that said person, company, corporation or association had been convicted of a violation of any particular provision of said sections, or any of them. Any such indict-
