P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 184. 1914 Code, sec. 289.

385. The four preceding sections shall not apply to the city of Annapolis or the first precinct of the Fifth Election District of the county.

1902, ch. 209. 1914 Code, sec. 290.

386. It shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County to issue a license or licenses to any person or persons or corporation to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer at the west end of the bridge, over Curtis Bay, in the Fifth Election District of Anne Arundel County, or within one-quarter of a mile in either direction of the west end of said bridge.

1902, ch. 272. 1914 Code, sec. 291.

387. It shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County to issue license to any person or persons or body corporate to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer nearer than one mile in all directions from white public school number four, in the Fifth Election District of Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

This Act shall take effect from and after the first day of May, nineteen hundred and two. And any person, or persons, firm or corporation selling liquors without a license, within one mile in all directions from white public school number four, in said Fifth Election District, shall, upon indictment and conviction, be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws relating to the sale of liquors without a license.

1906, ch. 119. 1914 Code, sec. 292.

388. From and after the first day of May, nineteen hundred and six, each applicant for a license to sell liquor and intoxicating drinks in the First and Third Precincts of the Fifth Election District of Anne Arundel County, shall annually pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

Out of the money received for licenses the clerk shall pay fifty dollars into the treasury of the State, and the remainder, after deducting the cost of issuing said license, shall be paid to the county treasurer, for the general fund of the county.

The provisions of this Act shall apply to all corporations, social clubs, or associations, whether the same shall be incorporated or not, and notwithstanding said social club or association may only furnish intoxicating liquors to its members.

Any person, firm, corporation, club or association who shall be convicted of selling intoxicating liquors without license, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than four hundred dollars for each and every offense.

All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, except where the sale of liquor is now prohibited, and
