

1914, ch. 525, sec. 241W.

528. The Burgess and Commissioners of Hancock are authorized to levy taxes not exceeding fifty cents on the one hundred dollars upon the assessable property in the town of Hancock, to pay any costs and expenses incident to the exercise of the powers or any of them, herein granted.*

1914, ch. 525, sec. 241Z.

529. In the event that in the operation of the water works, or sewerage system, in this Act provided, there shall remain any funds in the hands of the Burgess and Commissioners, as a profit, said Burgess and Commissioners shall apply said funds, or such part thereof as they may deem prudent, pro tanto to the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds as the same may mature instead of making a levy therefor.

1920, ch. 162, sec. 241AB.

530. The Burgess and Commissioners of Hancock are authorized and empowered to locate, design, adopt, construct, operate, maintain, repair, extend, enlarge or improve the supply, purification, filtration, pumping and disposal works, trunk lines and small distribution mains and lateral sewers in conjunction with a system of waterworks, or waterworks now in use by the inhabitants of the town of Hancock and the corporations, firms and establishments doing business therein.†
