

for a trial to be had before said justice; and should the offense charged be one in which the said justices of the peace do not have trial jurisdiction, then in that case said justices of the peace shall hold said person or persons for a hearing on a day not later than three days from the day on which said person or persons were brought before said justice of the peace, and the said justices of the peace are hereby required to admit to bail any person or persons so held for a hearing; provided, good and sufficient bail is offered; said hearing may be adjourned from time to time, if the interests of justice so require; said adjournment to be not for more than three days at any one time. But no justice shall admit any person to bail where the offense charged is punishable by death. The form of the bond in such cases shall be substantially as follows, and signed by the party accused and his surety or sureties:

State of Maryland, Washington County, to wit:

We, ——— and ———, acknowledge ourselves to owe and stand justly indebted to the State of Maryland, in the sum of ——— dollars, to be made and levied of our goods and chattels and lands and tenements, upon the condition that ——— be and appear in his proper person at the hearing or trial, as the case may be, before ———, justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Washington county, at his office, in ———, in Washington county, on the ——— day of ———, 19 ———, at ——— o'clock, — M., then and there to answer all such things as shall be alleged against ——— on behalf of the State of Maryland, and not to depart without leave; and in meantime to keep the peace and be of good behavior; then this bond to be void, otherwise to be and remain in force and virtue in law.

Taken, acknowledged and signed before me this ——— day of ——— 19—
—————, J. P.

And in cases where the defendant fails to make his appearance according to the terms of the bond, the justice of the peace shall declare the bond forfeited and shall so certify to the same and deliver the bond to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county, and shall notify the State's Attorney of Washington county of said forfeiture, and then such proceedings shall be taken as are now had in cases where recognizances are forfeited in the Circuit Courts.
