LIENS.

1918, ch. 465, sec. 1.

632. Whenever a motor vehicle or any part thereof is left by the owner thereof or by any other person with his authority, express or legally implied, in the custody of any corporation, firm or individual for storage, alterations or repairs, or for the purpose of having furnished for or on account of the same any parts, accessories, tires, gasoline, oils, electric current, towage or any other material or services, the corporation, firm or individual in whose custody said automobile or part thereof is left for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, shall have a lien on said motor vehicle or part thereof for all charges so incurred, and may lawfully retain the same until said charges have been paid, or until said lien is extinguished or discharged as hereinafter provided. Said lien shall be superior to the rights of the holders of conditional sale contracts, bills of sale, chattel mortgages or other liens or claims of any kind which are not executed and recorded as required by law, but shall be subordinate to the rights of holders of such conditional sale contracts, bills of sale, chattel mortgages or other liens or claims where the same have been executed and recorded as required by law. Surrender or delivery of any motor vehicle subject to the lien aforesaid shall operate as a waiver or extinguishment of the same as against third persons without notice thereof, but shall not operate as such waiver or extinguishment as against the owner, or as against third persons with notice.
