

shall be kept and preserved in the clerk's office and be open to the inspection of the public.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 324 (p. 1046).

642. No license shall be issued to any other person or persons unless such persons shall have executed a bond to the State of Maryland in the penal sum of two thousand dollars with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county, conditioned for the faithful observance of all the laws of this State, relating to selling of vinous or spirituous, malt brewed or fermented liquors or any admixture thereof, and to pay all costs, fines and penalties which may be imposed on him or them for any violation of this Act or any other Act or law relating to the regulating or providing, or with reference to the selling or furnishing liquors as aforesaid; and the said bond, when so approved, shall be deposited with said clerk, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and said clerk shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents therefor, to be paid by the applicant for such license, and the record thereof or a duly certified copy shall be evidence in any proceedings brought under the provisions of this Act for the enforcement of said penalties; but no person shall be accepted as surety on more than one bond in any one year.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325 (p. 1046).

643. No person shall knowingly sell or barter any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, nor shall any person knowingly sell or barter to any person such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to be drunk by any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, and no person shall knowingly give to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age any such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or knowingly allow upon the premises occupied by him or them or any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age to drink any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer sold or bartered by him or them; or shall any licensee under this Act allow any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age to frequent, loaf or loiter on or about his saloon or premises where spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer are sold. No licensee under this Act shall knowingly sell, furnish or give any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any habitual drunkard or to any person whose parent or parents, guardian, husband, wife, son, daughter, brother or sister, or committee shall have given notice that such person is of intemperate habits, and requesting such licensee not to sell to him or her, and no person not a licensee shall furnish or give to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer. The word "knowingly" as used in this Act as to minors shall be construed to mean actual knowledge, or such knowledge as a reasonable man would have under ordinary circumstances from the appearance of the minor or individual, and as to "habitual drunkards," the word "knowingly" shall be construed to mean