

carry on the business under such license for the residue of the time covered by such license, or until an assignment shall be made of such license, whichever shall first occur, and such widow, executor or administrator so carrying on business shall in every respect be subject to all requirements, provisions and penalties set forth in said Article Twenty-two as enacted by Chapter 380 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1908, and also entitled to all privileges and benefits thereby conferred, provided that said widow, executor or administrator execute a bond as required by said Act, or that the surety or sureties upon the bond of the person so dying shall first file their or its consent in writing with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County to the conduct of such business by said widow, executor or administrator, in which event said surety or sureties shall be bound with respect to such widow, executor or administrator the same as in his lifetime, with respect to the person so dying, according to the terms and conditions of such bond.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325H (p. 1051).

651. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Act to sell or give any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person, or suffer or permit any person to enter or remain in this saloon or place of business between the hours of 11 o'clock P. M. and 6 o'clock A. M., or suffer or permit any person other than a member of his family or a person bona fide in his employ for wages, except in cases of emergency, to enter or remain in his saloon, or in any room where intoxicating liquors are sold or furnished, at any time on Sunday or on election day or on Christmas day, or permit any person, except as aforesaid, to enter on Sunday or election day, Christmas day, the back door or any back entrance to any room in which intoxicating drinks or liquors are sold. And during the time between 11 o'clock P. M. and 6 o'clock A. M. and on Sunday and on election day and on Christmas day the windows of the saloon or place where intoxicating liquors are sold shall be left without blinds, curtains or any device whatsoever to prevent or obstruct the view from the outside. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable, upon conviction thereof to the penalties prescribed in Section 647 of this subtitle.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325J (p. 1051).

652. If the person or persons applying intends to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in quantities more than five gallons, the sum of five hundred dollars shall be charged for such license, and also a fee of fifty cents to the clerk; and if the person or persons applying intends to sell ale and lager beer, or either of them, and no other liquors in quantities not less than two dozen pints at one sale, except and whether said person or persons manufactures or brews said liquors or buys them for sale or whether said person pays a State license or not, the sum of two hundred dollars shall be charged for such license and also a fee of fifty cents to the clerk.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325K (p. 1051).

653. Any person or persons who sells or sell spirituous, fermented or