

intoxicating drinks in quantities not less than one quart and not more than four and one-half gallons, not to be drunk on the premises, and who shall run a grocery or general store, carrying a stock not less than $2,000.00 in connection therewith, exclusive of the liquors, shall pay a license fee of two hundred dollars, also a fee of fifty cents to the clerk. And that any person or persons who sells ale or beer, or both, and no other liquors in quantities less than two dozen pints at any one sale shall pay a license fee of one hundred and fifty dollars, also a fee of fifty cents to the clerk.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325½K (p. 1052).

654. Any distiller in Washington county who shall sell his own distilled product at his own distillery or within a distance thereof of 150 years* in quantities not less than one pint or more than four and one-half gallons, not to be drunk on the premises, shall pay a license fee of one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars, together with a fee of fifty cents to the clerk for issuing the license.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325L (p. 1052).

655. All sums of money received by the clerk of the court under the provisions of this Act, except the fees allowed herein and a commission of one per cent. on all sums collected by him for licenses, shall be paid by him on the first Monday of each and every month in the year, respectively, to wit: One-fourth, or twenty-five per cent. of all sums of money derived from licenses issued under this Act with the above exception, for the collection thereof, shall be turned over to the State Treasurer on the first Monday in each and every month in the year respectively, and the balance of all sums of money derived from licenses issued under this Act, in the town of Hagerstown, with the above exception shall be paid by him to the tax collector of said town for the use of the street fund, to be applied in making and cleaning the streets of the city of Hagerstown; and all monies derived from licenses issued under this Act in the other incorporated towns shall be paid by him respectively to the treasurer or tax collector of said incorporated towns; and all monies derived from licenses issued under this Act elsewhere in the county shall be paid by him to the county tax collector, to be applied on court expenses; and the bond of said clerk shall be liable for all monies received under the provisions of this Act and not paid over as herein directed.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325M (p. 1052).

656. Any and all acts done or suffered or permitted to be done by any agent, servant or employee of any licensee under the provisions of this Act shall be considered and taken in any prosecution of such licensee under any provision of this Act, as the act, sufferance or permission of such licensee.

*Evidently an error.