

justice, and the case shall be then tried in said court on the information or warrant. If the license of any person doing business under this Act be revoked by any justice of the peace the fact of such revocation shall be forthwith certified by said justice under his hand and seal to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county, who shall note upon the license record the fact that such revocation has taken place, and file the certificate setting forth the same with the papers in his office relating to liquor license.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325Q (p. 1054).

659. The said clerk shall account for any* pay into the State Treasury one-fourth of all the monies received for the issuance of said license.

1908, ch. 380, sec. 325R (p. 1054).

660. This Act does not repeal in any manner chapter 427 of the Acts of the General Assembly passed at its January session of 1894, as shown by the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, volume 2, article 56, section 155, nor is it intended to permit the issuance of licenses in any part of Washington county where the issuing of such licenses are now or may hereafter be prohibited by law.†

1898, ch. 214, sec. 325½.

661. Any person or persons holding a license issued under the provisions of this article, may assign the unexpired term thereof to another; provided, that said assignee shall comply with all the requirements and provisions of this article, in the same manner as is hereby required of an original applicant for a license under this article, and upon such transfer, the license so transferred shall have the consent of the clerk of the Circuit Court, endorsed on said license, and such assignee shall in every respect be subject to all the requirements, provisions and penalties of this article, and also of all privileges and benefits hereby conferred.‡

1906, ch. 521, sec. 1.

662. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county to issue a license to any person or persons to sell any spirituous or fermented liquors in the Beaver Creek District, being Election District No. 16, in Washington county, Maryland.

1906, ch. 521, sec. 2.

663. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell or to keep for sale any spirituous or fermented liquors in the Beaver Creek District, being Election District No. 16, in Washington county, Maryland.

*"And" evidently intended.

†Sec. 325-O, ch. 380, 1908, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.

‡Sec. 2, ch. 214, 1898, repealed all Acts inconsistent therewith.