

refuses to do the same, shall upon arrest and conviction be fined a sum not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00).

1916, ch. 500, sec. 100L.

137. It shall be the duty of each and every constable in Allegany County to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of all the sections of this Act, and when any dog is killed by any constable under the provisions of this Act, he shall be entitled to receive from the County Commissioners. the sum of One Dollar and Fifty cents ($1.50), for killing said dog and burying the same.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.*

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 101. 1878, ch. 203.

138. Allegany County is divided into fifteen election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and elections for public officers shall be held in each of said districts at the places which have been or may be designated by the County Commissioners.

139.*

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 102. 1878, ch. 203.

140. If it shall at any time be deemed necessary to the convenience of voters in said county, or any part thereof, to increase the number of election districts, or to alter or change the lines between districts, or to change the place for holding the election polls in any district in said county, then the County Commissioners of said county shall have power so to do.

Secs. 140 and 141 probably superseded by general election law.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 103. 1882, ch. 320.

141. If it shall at any time be deemed necessary to the convenience of voters in said county, or any part thereof, to sub-divide any of the election districts of said county into two or more election precincts, the County Commissioners of said county shall have power so to do, and in such event to provide all necessary machinery for holding elections in said several precincts as if they were complete election districts; and whenever any election district is so divided into two or more election precincts, it shall be the duty of the officer of registration for such district to make and keep up separate lists of qualified voters for each of said several precincts.

*See Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Md. for the general law governing elections. Chs. 508 of 1904 and 813 of 1906 relating to primary elections in Allegany County were superseded by the general primary election law of the State.

*Through an oversight no section was assigned this number.