

1914, ch. 174, sec. 3.

666. If after notice provided for in this Act, there be no remonstrance filed with said clerk against the issuing of any license applied for, said clerk shall issue such license to such club petitioner, after its filing with said clerk a bond as hereinafter provided for, when required by the provisions of this Act, and paying to said clerk for a license to sell ale and beer with other liquors, the sum of one hundred dollars where the membership of said club applicant does not exceed one hundred and the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars where the membership of said club exceeds one hundred members, and for a license to sell ale and beer alone the sum of fifty dollars where the membership of said club applicant does not exceed one hundred, and the sum of seventy-five dollars where the membership of said club applicant exceeds one hundred, as well, in each case, as the further sum of fifty cents as a fee to the clerk; provided, that if there be any remonstrance filed against the issuing of such license to any club petitioning therefor, the said clerk shall not issue the same, and the Circuit Court for Washington County shall fix the date as early as practicable when said petition and remonstrance shall be heard, and the said court shall whenever the said club petitioner has not complied with all the pre-requisites of this Act, direct said clerk not to issue the same, but if said court shall find that said club petitioner has complied with said pre-requisites, said court shall order the clerk to issue said license, and the judge hearing said petition and remonstrance shall place the costs of such hearing as he may deem equitable and just, provided that no license under this Act shall be issued to any applicant therefor until the license fee hereinbefore provided for shall have been paid, and the bond, when necessary under the provisions of this Act shall be given, filed and approved. No other license fees, State, County or municipal, shall be paid by said club except provided for in this Section.

1914, ch. 174, sec. 4.

667. No license under this Act shall be issued for longer than one year and all licenses shall expire on the first day of May, in each year, if issued for a shorter period the licensee shall pay for every month for which license is to run until the first of May, one-twelfth for an annual charge for such license.

1914, ch. 174, sec. 5.

668. The Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County shall keep a full record of all applications for licenses made by clubs under the provisions of this Act, and all recommendations for and remonstrances against the granting of any license or licenses thereon, whether the same be granted or refused to be granted, and such record shall be kept and preserved in the clerk's office and be open to the inspection of the public.

1914, ch. 174, sec. 6.

669. No licensee under this Act shall knowingly sell, furnish, or give any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any
