

thereof in Washington County, Maryland, without a license first having been obtained therefor under the provisions of this Act, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, in the discretion of the Court trying the case.

1914, ch. 174, sec. 11.

674. Any club or clubs having a license under the provisions of this Act, which shall hereafter be convicted of violating any of the provisions of this Act, or of the conditions of its license, shall unless otherwise herein provided, be subject to a fine of not more than two hundred dollars in the discretion of the Court trying the case, for the first offense, and upon a second conviction for a violation of any provision of this Act, or the condition of its license it shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars in the discretion of the Court trying the case, and in default of payment of any fine or costs so imposed the bond which has been given under the provisions of this Act shall be put in suit for the recovery thereof.

675. No further license for the sale of spirituous, fermented and intoxicating liquors or lager beer shall be required to be taken out or any further license fee for said purpose to be paid by any licensee under this Act for State, County or Municipal purposes.*

1916, ch. 30, sec. 5.

676. On and after the first day of May, one thousand, nine hundred and eighteen, it shall be unlawful for any person, persons, social club, firm or corporation to manufacture for sale, sell or purchase for sale, transport for sale, dispense or otherwise dispose of any alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters or liquid mixtures or preparations, whether patented or not, which will produce intoxication in such political unit or units so voting for prohibition, except for medicinal, pharmaceutical, scientific, sacramental or mechanical purposes, as may be allowed under the provisions of such acts as the General Assembly of Maryland shall pass at its regular session held next after the date of such election or any subsequent session allowing such sale for such purposes only. And any person, persons, social club, firm or corporation manufacturing, selling, transporting, dispensing or disposing of any alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled or malt liquors within such political unit or units so voting for prohibition shall be liable for all the penalties now or hereafter prescribed for manufacturing, selling, dispensing or disposing of alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled, malt and intoxicating liquors without a license; and

*Sec. 13, ch. 174, 1914, repealed all Acts inconsistent therewith.
