

any place used for purposes in violation of this section, such use is hereby declared a nuisance and shall be abated as such.*

Reynolds v. State, 141 Md. 637. Weller v. State, 150 Md. 278. McCurdy v. State, 151 Md. 443. McCoy v. State, 157 Md. 373.

1916, ch. 30, sec. 6A.

677. This Act shall not apply to, nor prohibit the manufacture for sale of alcoholic, spirituous and vinous, malt and intoxicating liquors by persons and Corporations now engaged in the manufacture thereof or the transportation thereof by said persons and Corporations where such liquors are manufactured for sale and sold only for delivery for shipment to places beyond the State or to places within the State where such sale is not now or hereafter prohibited by law.

Weller v. State, 150 Md. 278.

1924, ch. 10, sec. 6B.

678. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Section 676, nothing in the aforesaid Act of 1916 shall be held to prohibit the dispensing of wines in administering the Holy Sacraments, or like religious rites, in the various churches of Washington County, or be construed to apply to any registered druggist or pharmacist holding a permit from the United States Government to dispense intoxicating liquor on a prescription of a regularly practicing physician, for non-beverage purposes, or for pharmaceutical, scientific, sacramental or mechanical purposes under the license and authority of the United States Government; and any and all duly registered druggists or pharmacists holding such permits, engaged in such business, or who shall hereafter engage in the drug business in Washington County as aforesaid, shall be and they are hereby authorized to buy, transport, hold, sell and dispense within said Washington County intoxicating liquor for medicinal, pharmaceutical, scientific, sacramental or mechanical purposes, under the license and authority of the United States Government.

Weller v. State, 150 Md. 278.

1916, ch. 145, sec. 1.

679. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, or social club, firm or corporation to manufacture for sale, sell or purchase for sale, transport for sale, dispense, or otherwise dispose of, any alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters or liquid mixtures or preparations, whether patented or not, within the limits of Sandy Hook District, being Election District No. 11, in Washington County, Maryland, except for medicinal, pharmaceutical, scientific, sacramental, or mechanical purposes.

1916, ch. 145, sec. 2.

680. Any person, persons, social club, firm or corporation, violating the provisions of Section 679 of this subtitle shall be deemed guilty of a

*Ch. 104, 1916, providing for vote on "For license" and "Against license," does not seem to have been submitted, but ch. 30 of 1916 was submitted. The vote was: For prohibition, 5,470, and against prohibition, 4,991.