

REGISTER OF WILLS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 330. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 228.

697. The county commissioners shall not pass or order the payment of any account for fuel, paper or stationery for the register of wills for said county.

1904, ch. 489.

697A. When an assignment for an interest in any estate pending distribution in the Orphans' Court of Washington County is filed for record with the Register of Wills of said county, before the statement of final accounts, such filing shall be constructive notice to any administrator of such estate.

1892, ch. 422, sec. 1.

698. The Register of Wills for Washington County, Maryland, is hereby required to transcribe as many of the indexes in the office of the Register of Wills for said county into a new book or books well-bound for that purpose, as may now be worn out or rendered inefficient from continued use; and also remodel the entire general index of wills and administrations and guardian accounts; and that he also fill and supply any vacancy which may now exist in such general indexes.

1892, ch. 422, sec. 2.

699. Said Register of Wills for Washington County is required to transcribe wills, books Liber "B" and "C," in said office in well-bound books suitable and proper for the purpose.

ROADS.

1904, ch. 373.

700. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the County Commissioners of Washington County immediately upon the appointment of any and all road supervisors for said county, after their respective commissions shall be made out and signed by the said County Commissioners, to mail to each road supervisor, so appointed, his commission to issue to his latest postoffice address or to deliver the said commission in person to the said road supervisor if that be the most direct method for the clerk of the said County Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 333. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 230.

701. The county commissioners shall direct the supervisors of public roads in said county, to cause to be erected and kept up at the public expense, at all public cross-roads and where public roads fork, indexes or finger-boards, pointing to the nearest town, mill or other public places to which such roads lead, with the names of said places, and the distances thereto, legibly inscribed on such finger-boards.
