

quired to cut down and remove from and along such roads and highways all briars, undergrowth, bushes and weeds on or before the fifteenth day of July in each and every year, and upon failure of any such land owner to comply with the provisions of this Act, the County Commissioners of Washington County shall, at the expense of said county, have such briars, undergrowth, bushes and weeds cut and removed, and for so doing the said County Commissioners shall be reimbursed all costs and reasonable expenses necessarily incurred, to be recovered from the party or parties so delaying or refusing to cut and remove such briars, undergrowth, bushes and weeds in the same manner as debts of like amounts are recoverable.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 340. 1880, ch. 311.

709. Upon refusal or neglect of such person to comply with the orders of the said commissioners within ninety days from the date of said notice as returned by the sheriff, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and after presentment and indictment by a grand jury, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined the sum of five dollars per day for each and every day that said fence or other obstruction shall remain after the expiration of ninety days from the date of the giving of said notice, together with all costs incurred; the said fine to be recovered in the manner provided by law for the recovery of fines, penalties and forfeitures, and to be paid to the said county commissioners for the use of the roads of said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 341. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 235.

710. All fines imposed in such cases shall be appropriated to repairing such damages and improving the road, and shall be paid to and accounted for by the supervisor.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 342. 1874, ch. 356.

711. The county commissioners shall have power to construct any road, hereafter to be opened for the use of the public, less than thirty feet wide; provided, that in the judgment of the examiners such width will be sufficient for the public use.

1912, ch. 617, sec. 342A. 1924, ch. 75, sec. 342A.

712. The County Commissioners of Washington County, in addition to their other powers and duties under the law, shall have charge and control over all the county roads, streets, alleys, highways and bridges and all matters pertaining thereto, in accordance with the provisions of this Act as in the succeeding sections hereof mentioned.

1912, ch. 617, sec. 342B. 1924, ch. 75, sec. 342B.

713. The said County Commissioners shall meet once each week at the office of the County Commissioners of Washington County and may hold such other meetings as the proper discharge of their duties may require. They shall keep a journal of proceedings in which shall be entered all of their proceedings in detail, the correctness of the same to be attested each