

this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine to the county for each such offense not more than the sum of five hundred dollars, to be imposed by the Circuit Court for Washington County and collected as other fines are.

1892, ch. 178.

757. The county commissioners shall allow the sheriff of said county for the transportation of all prisoners sentenced by the judge of the Circuit Court to the penitentiary and other reformatory institutions of the State the actual sum laid out by the sheriff in railroad, other transportation for himself, necessary guards and prisoners, together with an additional sum not exceeding five dollars ($5.00) for each prisoner conveyed from the county to the place of confinement by said court.

SMITHSBURG.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 362. 1860, Art. 21, sec. 295. 1888, ch. 313. 1894, ch. 594.

758. The inhabitants of the town formerly known as Smithsburg, in Washington county, are created a corporation, by the name of "The Burgess and Commissioners of Geneva," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may be sued and may sue, may have and use a common seal, and possess such other incidents and powers as attach by law to a municipal corporation, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property for the benefit of said corporation; provided, however, that the burgess and commissioners shall not purchase or acquire any real estate, unless the said burgess and commissioners, shall first provide by ordinance for said purchase, and the mode and manner of payment therefor; and all ordinances for the purchase of real estate shall provide for the submission of the question of said purchase to the qualified voters of the town at some regular election for the election of burgess, assistant burgess and three commissioners of said town; such ordinance, before being submitted to qualified voters of the town, shall be posted in at least — of the public places of said town, for four weeks previous to its submission to the qualified voters of said town; and no ordinance for the purchase of real estate shall be of any force or validity unless it shall receive a majority of the votes cast at such election.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 363. 1888, ch. 313.

759. The government of said town shall be vested in a burgess, assistant burgess and three commissioners, to be elected as hereafter provided.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 364. 1888, ch. 313. 1900, ch. 504, sec. 364. 1916, ch. 110

760. The taxable limits of the town of Smithsburg are hereby declared to be as follows:

Beginning at a stone planted on the western margin of the public road leading from Smithsburg to Leitersburg, said stone being five and seventy-six hundredths (5.76) perches from the north corner of the stable now standing on the lot formerly belonging to Mr. Edward Clark, and running thence south seventy-six and one-half ($76\frac{1}{2}$) degrees, east one hundred and