1929, ch. 97, sec. 2.

792. The provisions of the preceding section of this Act shall not become effective unless the same, when submitted as hereinafter provided, to the qualified voters of the town of Smithsburg at a regular or special town election held in said town, shall be approved as hereinafter stated. After the passage of this Act the Burgess and Commissioners of Smithsburg, shall fix and designate the date when the said provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said town at such regular or special town election. In case more votes are cast at said regular or special town election against than for said bond issue, the Burgess and Commissioners shall within ninety (90) days thereafter, fix a date for the re-submission of the provisions of this Act to the voters of said town and re-submit the provisions of this Act as hereinafter provided. The provisions of this Act shall be published in full at least three (3) times in one or more newspapers published in said Washington County, the first of said publications to be not less than eight (8) days before the time of either the regular or special election.

The manner of submission shall be, that on the ballots at said regular town election, or at any special election held under the provisions of this Act, there shall be printed the words "For the Bond Issue," with a blank square opposite at the right, and the words "Against the Bond Issue," with a square opposite at the right, and all the voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words "For the Bond Issue," and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words, "Against the Bond Issue." If at the regular town or any special election held under the provisions of this Act a greater number of persons shall vote "For the Bond Issue," than "Against the Bond Issue," then the provisions of this Act shall immediately go into effect. In case a greater number of persons at said first regular or special election held under the provisions of this Act shall vote "Against the Bond Issue," than "For the Bond Issue," the Burgess and Commissioners of Smithsburg shall re-submit the provisions of this Act to the qualified voters of said town at a special election to be held in said town and to be called under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided, and the said second election shall be held in the same manner, form and proceedings as said first or regular special election, and upon and under all the requirements of this Act, and if at said second election so ordered a greater number of voters shall vote "For the Bond Issue," than shall vote "Against the Bond Issue," then this Act shall immediately go into effect, but in case a greater number of persons at said second election held under the provisions of this Act shall vote "Against the Bond Issue," than "For the Bond Issue," then and in that event this Act shall be null
