ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 23, sec. 40. 1868, ch. 24. 1874, ch. 261.

74. Wicomico county is divided into ten election districts according to their present names, bounds and limits, in each of which districts all elections for public officers shall be held at the places now fixed by law.

See secs. 76-88 for new districts.

1896, ch. 451.

75. The boundary line between Parsons' district No. 5, and Pittsburg district No. 4, in Wicomico county, Maryland, in and near the town of Parsonsburgh, in said district, shall be changed so as to read as follows: As the new boundary line between said districts in that locality beginning on the northeasterly side of the county road leading from Forest Grove to Parsonsburgh at a point in the curve of the said road opposite Public School No. 8 and about 100 feet therefrom; thence running north fifty degrees and thirty minutes east, 434 feet to the center of the county road leading from Salisbury to Parsonsburgh; thence with a street called Pine street so far as it runs, north four degrees, west 1,700 feet to the intersection of the county road known as the Parker road with the county road known as the new county road, by the residence of George W. Farlow.

1898, ch. 74, sec. 1.

76. There is hereby created a new election district in Wicomico county, to be known as the eleventh or Delmar election district of Wicomico county, and to be formed of the northern part of Salisbury election district, and the polling place of said district shall be Delmar.

1898, ch. 74, sec. 2.

77. The boundaries of said new district shall be as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the county road leading from Salisbury to Mardella Springs and the county road leading from said road easterly over the Ruark, or Naylor Mill dam, thence by and with the Ruark or Naylor road to the dam aforesaid; thence up the Ruark or Naylor Mill pond and branch to the mill dam of George W. Leonard of B, and county road leading from Salisbury to Laurel, Delaware; thence by and with said county road to the Delaware line; thence by and with the Delaware line to Spring Hill lane; thence by and with Spring Hill lane and the county road leading from Salisbury to Mardella Springs to the beginning.

1900, ch. 426, sec. 1.

78. There is hereby created a new election district in Wicomico County to be known as the Twelfth or Nanticoke Election District of Wicom-
