

tried by him, and shall pay over to the Treasurer of Wicomico County, the fines and penalties collected by him, at time of making said report. If any justice of the Peace shall fail to make said report or pay over any fine collected by him as the time herein limited for so doing, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction in the Circuit Court for Wicomico County shall be fined not less than Fifty nor more than Five Hundred Dollars, or sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months or more than two years, or to both fine and imprisonment.

LICENSES.

118A. It shall not be lawful for any individual, co-partnership or firm, who are non-residents of Wicomico county, to open a room or place of business for the purpose of selling goods, wares and merchandise at auction, or by any temporary expedients at variance with the regular licensed system of mercantile business in the said county, without first applying to the clerk of the Circuit Court of the said county for a special auction license to sell in the said county, and to pay therefor the sum of three hundred dollars, the said license to be non-transferable.

118B. Any individual, co-partnership or firm, who are non-residents as aforesaid, who shall attempt to violate the provisions of the preceding section in not having procured a license as required therein, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each and every day he shall so violate its provisions, one-half to the use of the State, and the other half to the County School Commissioners for the benefit of the public schools.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.*

119. It shall not be lawful to manufacture or to sell intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever, not to grant or issue, or cause to be granted or issued, any license to sell intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever within the limits of Wicomico county.

1908, ch. 139, sec. 3 (p. 1085).

120. Whoever shall, by himself or another, either as principal, clerk or servant, directly or indirectly, sell, barter or exchange any intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever within Wicomico county, or keep or have in his possession any intoxicating liquor with intent to sell or otherwise

*Secs. 60-70 of this Article in the 1888 Code as amended by 1896, ch. 136, and 1900, ch. 236, seem to have been repealed or superseded by ch. 139, 1908 (secs. 119-129 of this Article). See Board of Supervisors v. Todd, 97 Md. 259, in which ch. 195, 1896, imposing duty upon Circuit Court to order an election under certain conditions, was held invalid.
