

jurisdiction, judge of any court, or any sheriff, constable, marshal or other police officer, or by the grand jury of the said county of Wicomico. Any druggist or pharmacist who shall fail to keep such record, or shall fail or refuse to make any entry therein required by law, or shall destroy, or alter or change in any way any such record, or any entry therein, or any prescription, or permit or procure the same to be destroyed, altered or changed, or shall fail to cancel any such prescription at the time of filling the same, or shall refill any prescription, or shall sell intoxicating liquors for medicinal purposes except on written prescription or for sacramental purposes without an order signed by a clergyman, shall for each sale in violation of the provisions of this section be deemed guilty of unlawful selling, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished accordingly. And no prescription shall be filled by any druggist after thirty-six (36) hours from the hour and date of its issue. It shall be unlawful for any druggist or pharmacist who has been convicted of selling intoxicating liquor in violation of this Act, thereafter to sell intoxicating liquor for any purpose, personally or by his agent, for two years in said Wicomico county, and upon a second conviction for violating the provisions of this Act, any such druggist or pharmacist shall have his certificate to practice pharmacy revoked, and the justice of the peace or judge before whom such druggist or pharmacist is convicted of a second violation of this Act, shall so order and send a copy of such order to the Commissioner of Pharmacy, upon receipt of which such certificate shall forthwith be revoked by such Commissioner of Pharmacy, and shall not be renewed within one year from the date of such revocation.

126. All prosecutions for violations of this Act which are hereby declared to be misdemeanors, may be either upon presentment or indictment, or by trial before a justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction, who shall have jurisdiction, original and concurrent, with the Circuit Court for the said Wicomico county, and the said justice shall have power to issue all process, and to do all acts which may be necessary to the exercise of his said jurisdiction, and may try and determine all cases whereof he may have jurisdiction, and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein in the same manner and to the same extent as the Circuit Court for the said county could do in such cases if such cases were tried before said court without the intervention of a jury; provided, however, that if any person, when brought before any justice having jurisdiction of the case, shall, before trial for the alleged offense pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for said county shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a trial by jury on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of such justice to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the Circuit Court of the said county if it be in session, or at its next session if it be not in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance with the names and residences of witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith, to the clerk of said court, and the
