

nuisance abated by themselves; also to provide what part of the expense, if any, shall be borne by individual property owners or tenants, or be paid for in whole or part by the city, and shall have power to enforce such ordinance or ordinances by making a violation thereof a misdemeanor and punishable by fine and imprisonment.

1908, ch. 310, sec. 158L (p. 1122). 1922, ch. 27, sec. 158L.

302. The Mayor and Council of Salisbury are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the faith and credit of the city and for the use of the city any sum or sums of money, in all not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars, and may issue notes or other evidence of indebtedness for the same, and in such sums and payable at such times as they may prescribe by ordinance or otherwise; provided, that the payment of said notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued under authority of this section and the interest thereon must be paid by the Mayor and Council from the general taxes levied for the use of the city under the power conferred by its charter, the levying or collecting of any special tax for the payment of such notes or other evidence of indebtedness being expressly prohibited.

1908, ch. 310, sec. 158M (p. 1123).

303. For the enforcement of the city ordinances the police justice shall have all the powers of ordering arrests and summoning witnesses, trying cases and inflicting fines and punishments that are now vested in justices of the peace by law, and shall be entitled to demand and receive the same fees as in other criminal cases. He shall be furnished with a copy of the charter and ordinances of the city, and shall keep a separate docket for corporation cases, submit the same when requested and render quarterly statements and pay over all the fines to the treasurer. And the Mayor and Council may provide that a violation of the provisions of any ordinance may be a misdemeanor and punishable by fine and imprisonment. From any judgment rendered by the police justice in the enforcement of any provision of this charter or of the ordinances of the city an appeal shall lie by the party aggrieved to the Circuit Court for Wicomico county; provided, the appeal is taken within thirty days after the rendering of such judgment; but no appeal shall stay process or execution upon judgment, unless good and sufficient bond be given for payment of fine and all costs in case judgment be affirmed.

1908, ch. 310, sec. 158N (p. 1123).

304. All bonds issued and ordinance passed under the provisions of chapter 463 of the Acts of 1902, entitled "An Act to authorize the Mayor and Council of Salisbury, Wicomico county, to issue bonds defraying the costs of repairing fire engines," and chapter 466½ of the Acts of 1906, entitled "An Act to authorize the Mayor and Council of Salisbury, in the State of Maryland, to issue bonds for the purpose of grading, paving, curbing and draining the streets and roadways of the town of Salisbury,
