

ment or attempted enforcement of the ordinances of the town an appeal shall lie by the party aggrieved to the Circuit Court for Worcester County; provided, the same is prayed within five days and accompanied by a bond to be approved by the said lower Court for the payment of the fine and all costs in case the judgment be affirmed.

1908, ch. 733. 1920 Code, sec. 28.

29. The Mayor and Council may, when they deem such an officer necessary, appoint a night watchman, and may by ordinance or by note in the minute book fix his term of office, his salary and his duties. Said night watchman, when so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and subscribe before the Mayor the same oath herein required to be taken and subscribed by the policeman. And he shall have all the police powers of a constable, and any person resisting him in the discharge of his duties shall be liable, upon conviction, to the same penalties as are imposed for resisting a constable. And he shall have power to serve, deliver or post all orders or notices that under any law or ordinance are to be served, delivered or posted, and to make returns thereon to the Mayor, the Council or the Mayor and Council, and his return there-to shall have the same force and effect as is hereinbefore given to the return of the policeman to any such notice. He shall have the same power for making arrests, and for serving the warrants or writs for criminal offenses issued by Justices of the Peace, for any offense against the ordinances of the town or the laws of the State, if the said offense is committed within the corporate limits of said town, as are hereinbefore conferred upon the policeman of Berlin. Special policemen may be appointed from time to time by the Mayor, with the consent and approval of the Council, for a term not to exceed one week, when it is deemed necessary for the good order and peace of the town, all of whom shall be vested with the police powers of a constable, and resisting them in the discharge of their duties shall be punished in like manner and to the same extent as resisting a constable; and the Mayor and Council shall prescribe the duties and fix their compensation, either by ordinance or by note entered in their minute book.

1908, ch. 733. 1920 Code, sec. 29.

30. The Mayor and Council may have the sidewalk and gutters of any street, lane, alley or thoroughfare of Berlin or any part of either side of any such street, lane or alley paved with such material and in such manner as they think proper. Whenever they deem it expedient, right and requisite that the sidewalks or gutters of any street, lane, alley or thoroughfare shall be paved, wholly or in part, they may pass an ordinance requiring the said paving to be done under the provisions of this section and shall notify the parties owning the property in front of which the improvement is to be made and arrange with them for the payment of the expense thereof, but if no satisfactory arrangement can be made then they shall by order appoint three discreet and disinterested residents.
