

sold and be presented to the buyer, who shall sign his name on the back of said permission and set forth the date received. The buyer shall also furnish two statements; one to the landlord and one to the tenant, setting forth in both statements the kind of tobacco, the weight, the price paid and date received. The permission endorsed as aforesaid shall be returned to the giver. Any buyer or receiver of tobacco as aforesaid failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the county in which he resides, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00), nor more than ($100.00) one hundred dollars, or be confined in the county jail for not less than three (3) months, nor more than six (6) months.

484. Any person or persons not a bona fide farmer or licensed buyer and seller of tobacco, wishing to sell any leaf tobacco in Anne Arundel or the adjoining counties, grown or raised by him or her on his or her lot of ground not a farm, shall before doing so appear in person before a justice of the peace of the county in which he or she resides and obtain a permission, which shall be issued to him free to sell or dispose of said tobacco. The permission issued shall set forth the kind of tobacco, the weight (if known), the name of the party applying for the same and date issued. Said permit shall accompany said tobacco to the buyer, who shall write his name and date when presented on the back of said permission, and also the weight and kind of tobacco received by him, and return said permission to the issuing justice of the peace to be kept by him for one year. Any person or persons as aforesaid, failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be on conviction before any justice of the peace of the county subjected to the fine and penalties as set forth in Section 483.

1918, ch. 194, sec. 4.

485. Any person or persons buying any leaf tobacco in Anne Arundel or the adjoining counties, contrary to the provisions set forth in the different sections of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before the court of the county in which tobacco is bought, shall be subject to the fines and penalties set forth in Section 482.

486. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed so as to prevent any bona fide farmer from selling his tobacco raised and grown by him or her upon his or her farm in any manner, nor shall it prevent any person or persons from selling or buying crops or parts of unstripped crops of tobacco hanging in barns nor from packing, shipping and selling tobacco in hogsheads, as has been the custom.
