

assessment of any such case of the whole or any part of the costs of such work pro rata according to the front foot rule of apportionment of the cost of the improvements or such other equitable basis upon all abutting property binding upon such street, lane or alley; and for the collection of such assessment as other city taxes collected, or in such manner as it may prescribe.

Janis v. Berlin, 153 Md. 156.

1910, ch. 521. 1920 Code, sec. 48.

40. No sidewalk, street or alley shall be graded or the grade thereof changed or altered in any manner by anyone except on plan made by a competent surveyor and submitted to and approved by said Mayor and Council. If any person shall alter or grade, or change the grade of any sidewalk, street or alley as established, or as it may be hereafter established, except as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and stand committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid; and, in addition thereto, shall pay all costs and expenses of restoring said sidewalk, street or alley to its original grade.

1910, ch. 521. 1920 Code, sec. 49.

41. The powers vested in the Mayor and Council of Berlin by Sections 39 and 40 are intended as additional to and not in abrogation of any powers already vested in said Mayor and Council.

1902, ch. 185. 1920 Code, sec. 50.

42. Annually on the first day of April next succeeding each levy of County taxes, the Board of County Commissioners of Worcester County shall pay to the Mayor and Council of Berlin one-half of all sums levied by said County Commissioners for road and bridge taxes upon property within the corporate limits of Berlin, and collected within the preceding twelve months, to be expended by the Mayor and Council of Berlin for the repair, maintenance and improvement of the streets and roads within the corporate limits of Berlin, as a part of the public roads of Worcester County.

See sec. 65.

1902, ch. 185. 1920 Code, sec. 51.

43. The words "Road and Bridge taxes" as used in Section 42 shall include and embrace every sum or item in the annual levy of county taxes applied to or to be applied to the supervision, maintenance or improvement of the county roads and bridges, embracing labor, appliances and materials, except only such sums as are levied to the Pocomoke Bridge Company and the Ocean City Bridge Company.

See sec. 68.
