

the Burnt Field and the Staup farm to the intersection of the second line of the boundary of the town of Midland with the County road leading from said town to the town of Lonaconing; and running thence with the limits of Midland south eighty-four and one-quarter degrees west two-tenths of a mile to George's Creek; and running up said creek north-easterly four-tenths of a mile to Squirrel Neck Run; and then up said Run westerly two and six-tenths miles to the Garrett County line; then leaving District No. 18 and running with the Garrett County line south-westerly one mile to the place where the Koontz Run Road crosses the Garrett County line, it being the end of the sixth line of District No. 10, Lonaconing; and thence reversing the lines thereof southeasterly one and eight-tenths miles to the George's Creek and Cumberland Railroad at a point northwest three-quarters of a mile from the bridge of said railroad across George's Creek; thence with said railroad one-eighth of a mile to a point where said County road leading over the mountain to Woodland intersects with said railroad; thence with said County road one-eighth of a mile to the County bridge over George's Creek at the south end of Kanapp's Meadow; thence with said creek northeast three-quarters of a mile to a point opposite Pine Hill Dump the end of the twelfth line of District 15; thence with the thirteenth line of said District southeast about 150 feet to the beginning of said District No. 15; thence still with the lines of said District south twenty-five degrees east about one-quarter of a mile to the head of the plane; thence with a straight line south nine degrees east about four-fifths of a mile to the Ritchey Road; and thence with it easterly one mile to the Bog Ore Road; thence with a straight line south forty-nine and one-half degrees east one and one-quarter miles to the second low gap in Dans Mountain south of Wolfe's Rock and on the line of District No. 7; and thence with said District and with the crest of Dans Mountain northeasterly one and one-third miles to the beginning.

1916, ch. 146, sec. 2.

146. The Board of Election Supervisors of Allegany County shall cause the poll books of Election Districts Nos. 10 and 27 to be so amended as to take from said District No. 10 the names of all duly registered voters living within the boundary lines of said District No. 27 as changed by this Act, and do all things necessary and requisite to enable the voters who are now registered in District No. 10 to be transferred to the poll books of said new District, as required by the Election Laws of the State of Maryland.

1904, ch. 383.

147. A new Election District is formed and laid out of the Twenty-sixth Election District of Allegany County, to be known and distinguished as the "Twenty-eighth Election District of Allegany County," that precinct one of the Twenty-sixth Election District to be known hereafter as the Twenty-sixth Election District of Allegany County; and precinct two