

as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may annually be incurred by the attendance of jurymen at the Circuit Court for said county.

1890, ch. 627. 1920 Code, sec. 114.

87. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the County Commissioners of Worcester county, to make out and file with the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, not less than twenty days before the second regular term of said court, after each and every general election held hereafter, a fair and complete list of the male taxables or residents of said county whose names appear on the tax books thereof, and who are not known to said clerk to be under the age of twenty-five years; and to said list so to be made and filed, the clerk shall append a certificate that said list is fully and fairly made; and for making such lists the said clerk shall receive such compensation as the County Commissioners shall deem right and proper, and for failure to perform the duty hereby imposed, the said clerk shall forfeit and pay the State a fine not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars in the discretion of the court, to be recovered by indictment as for a misdemeanor, and shall be thenceforth incapable of holding position as clerk to County Commissioners.

1890, ch. 627. 1920 Code, sec. 115.

88. It shall be the duty of the judges of the Circuit Courts for said counties, not less than fifteen days before the beginning of each term of the court at which jurors are required to attend, in the presence of such members of the bar of said court as shall attend, notice of the time and place having been given to said bar through the clerk of said court, to proceed to select from the list furnished by the clerk of said county and from the poll-books of the several election districts of said county that shall be returned and filed in the clerk's office of said court after any general election last held, a panel that shall consist of the names of two hundred persons in said county fairly and impartially selected, of the age aforesaid, by the judges, out of the election districts of said county in proportion to the inhabitants or residents of each district, with special reference to the intelligence, sobriety and integrity of such person and without the least reference to political opinion; and of the names of such persons so selected, a list shall be made and a certificate appended thereto by said judges, that the said list of names has been duly selected in conformity with and according to the spirit of this act; and the said list and certificate shall be filed with the clerk of said court and by them preserved as other proceedings of the court are kept.

1890, ch. 627. 1920 Code, sec. 116.

89. When said list of names selected as directed in the preceding sections is made and certified as herein provided for, immediately thereupon the judges of said court in the presence of the members of the bar as aforesaid, and such other persons who may attend, shall cause all the names
