

Revenue Stamp for the business of dealing in liquors by a person or persons, firm, corporation or association alleged to be violating the provisions of this Act shall be prima facie evidence of guilt, and the testimony of two witnesses that they saw the name or names of the person or persons, firm, corporation or association in the records of the internal revenue office among the names of parties who have bought the internal revenue stamp for the business of dealing in liquors for the time covered by the indictment shall be conclusive evidence that the accused has or have in possession the internal revenue stamp for the business of dealing in liquor.

Mitchell v. State, 115 Md. 360.

1908, ch. 27. 1914, ch. 158. 1920 Code, sec. 136.

110. One-half of all fines imposed for the violation of the provisions of Section 107 shall be paid to the informer and the balance shall be applied to the public schools of the county.

1914, ch. 561. 1920 Code, sec. 137.

111. If any person makes an affidavit before a Justice of the Peace for the said County describing the house or place to be searched and the things to be searched for that he had reason to believe and does believe that intoxicating liquor is sold or kept for the purpose of being sold in violation of the provisions of this Act, such Justice of the Peace shall issue his warrant directed to any officer whom the complainant may designate having power to serve criminal process, commanding him to search premises described and designated in such affidavit and warrant and the appurtenances thereto, and if any such shall be found there, to take into his possession and safely keep all intoxicating liquor and the vessels in which it is contained, if the same shall be found in quantities and under such conditions as to suggest that it be kept for sale, and all means used for the sale of the same, all the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a bar room or drinking saloon, and any United States Internal Revenue stamp for the sale of liquors, effective for the period of time covering the alleged offense, and forthwith report in writing all the facts and make immediate return on said warrant.

1914, ch. 561. 1920 Code, sec. 138.

112. The warrant for search shall be directed to the proper officer, and the following form for same shall be sufficient: State of Maryland, Worcester County, to wit: To....., Greeting: Whereas there has been filed with the undersigned an affidavit of which the following is a copy (here copy affidavit), these are therefore to command you in the name of the State of Maryland to enter into (here describe the house or place described in the affidavit) of the said.....of..... in the County aforesaid, and there diligently search for the said intoxicating liquor and means used for the sale of the same (here describe the articles as in the affidavit), and that you bring the same or any part hereof found in such search forthwith before me to be disposed of and dealt with:
