

boat or vessel, whenever and wherever such person, canoe, boat or vessel shall be found violating or being used in violating any of the provisions of this sub-title of this Article, and bring the offender before some Justice of the Peace or Judge of the Circuit Court for said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 24, sec. 189. 1920 Code, sec. 232.

182. All boats, vessels or other property condemned under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, shall be sold by the sheriff or some constable of said county at public sale, after giving twenty days' notice of the time and place of such sale, by advertisements posted in at least two public places in the vicinity of said sale, to the highest bidder for cash; and the boat, tackle and implements used by the party violating any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, shall be seized and taken in possession by the said constable or sheriff, and in default of payment of the fine and costs aforesaid, shall be sold at public sale as hereinafter provided, and as much of the proceeds of said sale as may be necessary, applied to the payment of all fines and costs and other expenses incurred under this sub-title of this article.

183. Any party against whom any justice of the peace may render a judgment under this sub-title of this article, either to pay a fine or of condemnation of property, may, at any time, within ten days from the rendition of such judgment, appeal from such judgment to the Circuit Court for said county, but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond with approved security to the State of Maryland in double the value of the property condemned or of the fine imposed, as the case may be, with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to pay the value of the property condemned and fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings in case such judgment shall be affirmed. No person shall be accepted as such security unless he resides in said county, and shall make oath or affirmation that he is worth double the value of the property condemned.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 24, sec. 191. 1920 Code, sec. 234.

184. If any person on board any canoe, boat or vessel engaged in violating any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, shall abandon the said canoe, boat or vessel, and flee so as to escape arrest, the officer endeavoring to make such arrest shall seize such canoe, boat or vessel, and give information of such seizure to some justice of the peace or judge of the Circuit Court for said county; and it shall be the duty of the said justice of the peace or judge to docket a case in the name of the State against the said canoe, boat or vessel, and to proceed without delay with the trial of the same, and if there is sufficient proof that said canoe, boat or vessel has been used or employed in violating any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, the said justice of the peace or judge shall either render a judgment of condemnation against the said canoe, boat or vessel, her tackle and furniture on board at the time of, or fine the said
