

degrees East parallel with said ditch and approximately six (6) feet in an Easterly direction from the East side thereof nineteen hundred forty-seven (1,947) feet through the Peter Tarr Field to a stone boulder on the North side of the State Stone Road leading from Pocomoke City to Snow Hill, thence running (4) South twenty-four and one-half ( $24\frac{1}{2}$ ) degrees East across said State Road thirty (30) feet to the East corner of a culvert on the South side thereof, thence (5) South ten (10) degrees East across what is known as the "John Sturgis Land" eighteen hundred fifteen (1,815) feet to a stone boulder on the East side of a ditch, thence (6) South twenty-four (24) degrees East by and with the East side of said ditch four hundred fifty-five (455) feet to a stone boulder, thence (7) South forty (40) degrees East six hundred fifty (650) feet to a stone boulder on the North side of a private road leading Northeasterly from the East side of the State Stone Road which leads from Pocomoke City to the Virginia Line, thence (8) South forty-six and one-half ( $46\frac{1}{2}$ ) degrees West by and with the North side of said private road three hundred twenty-seven and one-half ( $327\frac{1}{2}$ ) feet to a stone boulder on the East or Northeast side of the State Stone Road leading from Pocomoke City to the Virginia Line, thence (9) North forty and one-half ( $40\frac{1}{2}$ ) degrees West by and with the North or Northeast side of said State Stone Road and binding thereon seven hundred forty-five (745) feet to a stone opposite the North side of Tenth Street, thence (10) South fifty-one (51) degrees West across the aforesaid State Stone Road and by and with the North side of Tenth Street seven hundred sixty-nine (769) feet to a stone boulder at the intersection of the North side of Tenth Street and the East side of Cedar Street, thence (11) North forty-one (41) degrees thirty-five (35) minutes West by and with the East side of Cedar Street four hundred twenty-seven (427) feet to a stone boulder, thence (12) South forty-eight (48) degrees twenty-five (25) minutes West three hundred (300) feet across said Cedar Street and through a field to a stone boulder therein, thence (13) South eighty-three (83) degrees West through a field and across the Railroad twenty-five hundred seventy-four (2,574) feet to a stone boulder on the edge of a hill East of the Grandstand in the Pocomoke Fair Grounds, said point being at the end of the fifth line of the survey of the boundaries of Pocomoke City as they existed prior to the passage of this Act, said point being described in said survey as "a ditch on the edge of a red hill in the field of the late William J. Long."

1927, ch. 445, sec. 254B.

193. The Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City shall be and it is hereby authorized and directed to cause the metes and bounds, described in Section 192 of this subtitle, to be forthwith surveyed and distinctly marked by stones to be placed at the beginning and termination of each line and at such other places as it deems necessary to properly locate said boundary lines; and full power is given to the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City, and to its agents, servants and employees, to enter upon any and