

performed by virtue of the powers so conferred. In cases where powers are so conferred on the Council the concurrence or approval of the Mayor shall not be necessary. In the enactment of resolutions, by-laws and ordinances, and also in all contracts and business transactions and all other matters where concurrent action is required, the veto of the Mayor may be overruled by the unanimous vote of the Council. In all matters requiring their concurrent action it shall be the duty of the Mayor to recommend and advise, but the first action on such matters shall be taken by the Council, after which it shall be the duty of the Mayor either to approve or disapprove; and it shall be the duty of the Council to cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of all their proceedings; and whenever the Council shall vote upon the question of the adoption of any resolution, by-law or ordinance, the minutes shall show how many and which Councilmen voted for the adoption of said resolution, by-law or ordinance, and also how many and which Councilmen voted against the same. Each Councilman shall receive the annual salary of two hundred ($200) dollars which sum shall be payment in full for all services rendered the town as Councilman, provided, however, that any Councilman may be reimbursed by the town for actual and necessary traveling expenses while outside the corporate limits of Pocomoke City on business for the said town and provided further that one Councilman may be appointed and act as town treasurer and receive therefor in addition to his salary as Councilman not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars per annum and that another Councilman may be appointed and act as superintendent of Water Works of said town and receive therefor in addition to his salary as Councilman not to exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars per annum. Provided, however, that no Councilman shall hold the offices of town treasurer and superintendent of Water Works both at the same time.

1906, ch. 549. 1920 Code, sec. 261.

205. The Mayor and Council shall provide and keep three classes of record books; first, the minute books; second, the ordinance books; third, the general record books. They shall also keep an assessment book and a book in which the several officers shall subscribe to their oath of office, and they may keep such other books as they may deem necessary; the minute books shall contain memoranda and entries showing the proceedings of the Council as they occur. When an ordinance is passed the minute book shall show its number and title as well as the vote thereon as before provided. The minute book shall also show the transactions of the Mayor and Council, and memoranda of all the contracts entered into by the Mayor and Council shall be entered in said book, together with the names of the Councilmen who voted for and who voted against each contract. And the minutes of each meeting shall be signed at the foot thereof by the president of the Council and the town clerk on behalf of the Council, and shall also be signed by the Mayor in token of his approval of the matters and transactions therein contained, with the exception of ordinances. All ordinances passed by the Council and approved by the Mayor
