

passed at the January session of the year 1902, and Chapter 185 of the Acts passed at said January session of the year 1902, and Chapter 223 of the Acts passed at said January session of the year 1902, each and all of which are hereby specially excepted from repeal by anything in this Act contained, and each and all of which shall remain in full force and effect, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act. But all other Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

1902, ch. 223. 1920 Code, sec. 281.

225. The Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City are invested with power to contract with the Citizens Power and Light Company of Pocomoke City, Maryland, or the Pocomoke Telephone Company of Pocomoke City, Maryland, for the use of the poles and wires of either or both of said bodies corporate for the purpose of supplying Pocomoke City with a fire-alarm system, and for such length of time and upon such terms as the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City may deem for the best interest of the town.

1902, ch. 185. 1920 Code, sec. 308.

226. Annually on the first day of April next succeeding each levy of County taxes, the Board of County Commissioners of Worcester County shall pay to the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City one-half of all sums levied by said County Commissioners for road and bridge taxes upon property within the corporate limits of Pocomoke City, and collected within the preceding twelve months, to be expended by the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City for the repair, maintenance and improvement of the streets and roads within the corporate limits of Pocomoke City, as a part of the public roads of Worcester County.

1902, ch. 185. 1920 Code, sec. 308A.

227. The words "Road and Bridge Taxes" as used in Section 226 shall include and embrace every sum or item in the annual levy of county taxes applied to or to be applied to the supervision, maintenance or improvement of the county roads and bridges, embracing labor, appliances and materials, except only such sums as are levied to the Pocomoke Bridge Company and the Ocean City Bridge Company.

POCOMOKE RIVER.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 24, sec. 216. 1920 Code, sec. 309.

228. It shall not be lawful for any person to throw or place into the waters of the Pocomoke river, for the purpose of taking or destroying fish therein, any lime, coculus indicus, otherwise called Indian cockle, or any other poisonous weed or substance, whether mixed with any other substance or not; every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace, in the name of the State, shall be punished by a fine, in the discretion of
