

of the Twenty-sixth Election District be known hereafter as the Twenty-eighth Election District of Allegany County.

1906, ch. 770.

148. The Board of Supervisors of Elections of Allegany County hereby are authorized and directed to change the boundary lines between Election Districts Nos. 17 and 24 of Allegany County, that the town of Clarysville, in said Allegany County, shall be in District No. 24.

1910, ch. 375 (p. 473).

149. A new election district is hereby created in Allegany County to be known as "Election District No. 32," the same being taken from Election District No. 12 as now constituted; said "Election District No. 32" shall be described by the following metes and bounds: 1. Beginning at the intersection of Union Street and Bowery Street in the town of Frostburg, it being the end of the first line of the original line of District No. 12, and running thence with said lines northwesterly $\frac{1}{10}$ of a mile to the Legislative Road opposite the St. Cloud Hotel, thence with said Legislative Road northwesterly $2\frac{1}{4}$ miles, passing the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Station in Frostburg and passing through the village of Allegany to the road leading from Morantown Eckart, then with said road southeasterly 1 mile to the top of the hill where said road begins to descend into the village of Eckhart, then with a straight line southwesterly $1\frac{3}{5}$ miles to a point on the National Road $\frac{1}{10}$ of a mile east of the Allegany Cemetery gate, then leaving the lines of the original District No. 12 and running northwesterly with the National Pike $\frac{1}{4}$ mile to the intersection of the National Road with the Allegany Cemetery Road, and with said road southwesterly $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile to the intersection of the Cemetery Road and McColloh Street; thence northwesterly $\frac{1}{8}$ of a mile with McColloh Street to the intersection of McColloh and Green Streets, thence southwesterly one-eighth of a mile with Green Street to the intersection of Green Street and Blair Street, thence northwesterly one-eighth of a mile with Blair Street to the intersection of Blair Street and Grant Street, thence southwesterly 300 feet with said Grant Street to the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad, and with said railroad northwesterly one-quarter of a mile to Bowery Street, and with Bowery Street northwesterly one-third of a mile to the beginning; the Supervisors of Elections shall have proper books arranged for said new district, and shall appoint the proper registration and election officials to perform the duties required by law, so that at all elections hereafter to be held the voters in said district may cast their votes in the same.

1916, ch. 4.

150. A new election precinct be and the same is hereby created in Allegany County, to be known as Precinct No. 3 of Election District No. 8. The said precinct to be taken from Precinct No. 1 of District 8 and to be described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of