

papers published in Baltimore County; and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to cause said rules and regulations adopted by them as aforesaid to be so recorded in a book or books kept by them for that purpose in their office, and to be published at least three times in two papers published in Baltimore County at aforesaid, and when so recorded and published all persons shall be deemed and taken to have notice thereof, and no actual notice need be proven. And it shall further be the duty of the said County Commissioners to cause to be printed for general distribution a sufficient number of copies of said rules and regulations when so adopted, recorded and published as aforesaid, with a printed certificate, by the Chief Clerk of said County Commissioners, to the effect that said rules and regulations have been so recorded and published as aforesaid, and said printed copy of such regulations, with certificate as aforesaid, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of such rules and regulations whenever it may be necessary to prove the existence of the same in any judicial proceedings. And the power is given said County Commissioners to change or amend from time to time, as may be necessary, such rules and regulations in whole or in part, in which event the same shall be valid and effective when recorded and published as aforesaid. And the said County Commissioners, in addition to the remedies provided for by this Act, shall have the right to enforce said regulations and the provisions of this Act, and prevent infractions thereof by an application to the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in equity, for an injunction, and a breach or threatened breach or violation of this Act, or of said regulations, shall be deemed sufficient cause in itself for the issuance of such injunction when applied for, and no further cause need be alleged or shown.

1908, ch. 300, sec. 4. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 24. 1916, sec. 59. 1928, sec. 66.

66. The respective inspector of buildings appointed as aforesaid for the said election districts shall respectively have the supervision of the construction of all buildings erected in said respective election districts for which they are appointed, and shall see that the rules and regulations of the County Commissioners relating to the construction of said buildings shall be complied with, and they shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the County Commissioners aforesaid not inconsistent with this Act. Their compensation shall consist of the fees allowed them for their services in issuing permits for the erection of buildings; each of said inspectors of buildings shall be subject to removal at any time in the discretion of the County Commissioners; provided, that any person or persons violating any of the rules and regulations so promulgated by the County Commissioners under the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

1908, ch. 300, sec. 5. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 25. 1916, sec. 60. 1928, sec. 67.

67. It shall be the duty of each of said inspectors of buildings to visit and inspect all theatres, hotels, public halls, churches, schoolhouses and