

1914, ch. 544, sec. 1. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 63. 1928, sec. 70.

70. No permit for the construction or erection of any building or structure of any kind in the First, Second, Third, Ninth, Twelfth, Thirteenth or Fourteenth Election Districts of Baltimore County shall be granted unless adequate provision is made for disposing of the waste, sewage and drainage from such building or structure, and plans thereof presented for the inspection of the building inspector in the district in which such building or structure is to be erected and the secretary of the local Board of Health of Baltimore County and approved by them.

1914, ch. 544, sec. 2. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 64. 1928, sec. 71.

71. In all buildings so erected provision shall be made for disposing of the waste, sewage and drainage therefrom in accordance with the plans furnished as required by Section 70 of this Article, and such arrangements shall be installed under the supervision of the inspector of buildings of the district in which such building is erected.

1914, ch. 544, sec. 3. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 65. 1928, sec. 72.

72. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall have the power and authority, and the same is hereby expressly delegated to them, of adopting all necessary rules, regulations and orders for insuring adequate provision for disposing of the drainage, sewage and waste from such building, so as to protect the public health, and such rules, regulations and orders when recorded in the minutes of said Commissioners, signed by them and attested by their chief clerk and auditor, shall have the same force and effect as though enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, and any person violating the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

CATONSVILLE.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 15. 1870. ch. 146. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 28.
1916, ch. 66. 1928, sec. 73.

73. It shall not be lawful for stock of any kind to go at large in Catonsville; and any citizen may take up and impound any horse, mule, horned cattle or swine which may be found going at large in said town; and any person so taking up and impounding shall notify a justice of the peace resident therein, who shall give notice of said impounding by advertisement set up in some conspicuous place in the town, describing the stock so impounded, and that the same shall be sold at public auction at some public place within said limits four days; provided, that if the owner of any stock impounded under this section shall prove to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace that said stock did not go at large from negligence or want of care on his part, and that due diligence was used to prevent it, the owner shall have return of the property on paying all expenses of keeping and proving the same, and one dollar for taking up each of the stock.
