

1896, ch. 116. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 51. 1916, sec. 91. 1928, sec. 98.

98. The Judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase such law books as in their discretion they may deem necessary for the furtherance of the business of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County; provided, that the annual cost of said books shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars; and the County Commissioners of Baltimore County be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to levy annually upon the assessable property of said county the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay for said books.

See Art. 38, sec. 4, Anno. Code of Md.

1900, ch. 414. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 52. 1916, sec. 92. 1928, sec. 99.

99. The payment of appearance fees to attorneys-at-law by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, in what are known as habeas corpus cases, arising in said county, is forbidden.

1918, ch. 334. 1920, ch. 173, sec. 93. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 93. 1928, sec. 100.

100. The Circuit Court for Baltimore County is hereby authorized to employ a Court Stenographer, who shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and such stenographer so appointed shall receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum to be paid in regular monthly installments as the bailiffs of said Court are now paid.

1914, ch. 336, sec. 52B. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 94. 1928, sec. 101.

101. Said stenographer so appointed shall be skilled in the practice of his art and shall hold his position during the pleasure of the court. It shall be his duty at the direction of said court to take full stenographic notes of all oral testimony and judicial opinions delivered at the regular terms of said court and of any other judicial opinions or judicial matters requested by said court.

And it shall be the duty of said stenographer to furnish to any party to such proceedings a typewritten copy of the notes so taken, or of such part thereof as may be required, at the rate of ten cents per page of not less than 200 typewritten words for an original copy and five cents per page for a carbon copy thereof, when more than one copy is made.

1914, ch. 336, sec. 52C. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 95. 1928, sec. 102.

102. Whenever any judge of said court shall direct that a typewritten copy of such notes taken on the law or criminal side of said court be filed in court, it shall be the duty of said stenographer to make such copy for the use of said court without extra charge; the cost of such original copy to be taxed as part of the costs of the case, either or both sides to have the right to obtain copies thereof at five cents per page. Provided, however, that when such notes are taken on the equity side of said court, when testimony is taken orally in said court, said stenographer shall be paid by the parties at whose instance said testimony is taken ten cents
