

1916, ch. 16. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 199. 1928, sec. 214.

214. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County are authorized to have said Code printed and published and to sell copies thereof at such prices as to them may seem reasonable; the money received from the sale of such copies to be paid over to the County Treasurer of Baltimore County as a part of the public funds of said county.*

1916, ch. 139. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 200. 1928, sec. 215.

215. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County are hereby authorized in any publicaion of the Public Local Laws of Maryland relating to Baltimore County, to arrange and section such Public Local Laws as may be passed by the General Assembly of Maryland of 1916 or thereafter in conformity with the plan adopted in the Revised Code of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore County of 1915.

FENCES.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 85. 1870, ch. 437. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 126.
1916, sec. 201. 1928, sec. 216.

216. When the lands of any two persons adjoin, each of them shall make and maintain one-half of the whole length of the line of fence between them, and if either of said persons shall fail or neglect to make his proportion of said fence, or to keep or put the same in good repair within sixty days after he shall have been notified and requested to do so in writing, then the party making said request may make or repair said fence at the expense of the party so neglecting or refusing, to be recovered from him in an action of debt, with costs of suit.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 86. 1870, ch. 437. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 127.
1916, sec. 202. 1928, sec. 217.

217. Should any person wish to fence in any land which has hitherto been unenclosed, after having built his proportion of said fence, he shall give to the party whose land adjoins his notice in writing that he must erect his proportion of said fence within sixty days; and if the party so notified shall fail to erect his proportion of said fence, the same remedy as given in the preceding section shall apply.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 87. 1870, ch. 437. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 128.
1916, sec. 203. 1928, sec. 218.

218. Before proceeding, however, to make or repair the fences mentioned in the two preceding sections, the person who has given the notification in writing shall apply to a justice of the peace of the county, who, upon affidavit of the party that he has given such notice, and that said fence has not been erected or repaired within the time specified, shall summon three disinterested landholders, who shall view the said fence and shall determine the proper amount of money to be expended in erect-

*Sec. 2 of ch. 23, 1929, authorized the County Commissioners to sell copies of the 1928 Code at such price as in their judgment may be proper.
