

attached or used in connection therewith nor any farm property or any building thereon in Baltimore County.

1920, ch. 163. 1922, ch. 290, sec. 216F. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 250.

250. It shall be unlawful for any person unless duly authorized thereto by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to wear uniform, badge or insignia of the Fire Department of Baltimore County or in any manner to interfere with, mutilate or damage any apparatus, property, fire alarm box, wires or equipment or appurtenances of the Fire Department of Baltimore County or in any way interfere with any member of said department in the discharge of his duties and any violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not less than fifteen days nor more than six months.

1920, ch. 163. 1922, ch. 290, sec. 216G. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 257.

251. It shall be unlawful for any person in the operation of any vehicle, car, street car, automobile or truck to obstruct any fire engine in Baltimore County proceeding to a fire but all such vehicles, cars, street cars, automobiles and trucks shall immediately upon being warned of the approach of such fire engine give the same the right of way, and shall stop and shall not move on its way until such fire engine is two hundred feet distant from them in the direction said fire engine or apparatus is moving, and no vehicles, car, automobiles or trucks shall park or be permitted to stand within two hundred feet of any fire engine or apparatus while such fire engine or apparatus is attending a fire. Any violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment for not less than five days nor more than sixty days.

1920, ch. 163, sec. 216H. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 251A.

251A. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County be and they are hereby authorized to make such provisions for pensioning the widow and infant children of firemen who have been killed in the active discharge of their duties as members of the Fire Department of Baltimore County, as in the judgment of such Commissioners shall be just and proper.

1922, ch. 290, sec. 216-I. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 252.

252. Any permanent member of the Fire Department of Baltimore County who shall reach the age of sixty years while serving as such, shall by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, be retired at that time, and such member shall be placed upon the pension roll as provided in Section 245 of this Article and entitled to all the benefits therefrom as therein provided for.