

and shall form a special fund which shall be applied by said County Commissioners to the laying of a concrete sidewalk not less than four feet in width along the south side of said State highway, from the west side of Beaumont Avenue to said east side of Montrose Avenue.

1922, ch. 425. B. Co. C. (1928), sec. 286.

286. A sidewalk shall be laid under contracts which shall be let on a competitive basis to the lowest responsible bidder; that it shall be laid under the supervision of the Highways Engineer of Baltimore County according to plans and specifications prepared by him, which shall have been submitted to and approved by the Chief Engineer of the State Roads Commission of Maryland. That whenever there shall have been paid into the hands of the said Treasurer of Baltimore County, under the aforesaid levy, a sufficient amount to lay not less than one thousand lineal feet of such sidewalk, four feet wide, said County Commissioners are authorized and directed to let a contract as aforesaid for so much of said sidewalk as the funds then available will justify, and so from time to time letting additional contracts as funds may be available, beginning the construction of said sidewalk at the west side of Beaumont Avenue aforesaid and causing said sidewalk to be constructed as a continuous one toward the west until it shall reach said east side of Montrose Avenue.

FRANKLIN.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 108. 1872, ch. 322. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 160.
1916, sec. 241. 1928, sec. 287.

287. It shall not be lawful for any person to enclose any of the streets, lanes or alleys, or any part of the streets, lanes or alleys, as laid down in Poppleton's plat of the town of Franklin, in Baltimore County, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offense, and five dollars for each and every day that such street, lane or alley shall remain, in whole or in part, enclosed.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 109. 1872, ch. 322. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 161.
1916, sec. 242. 1928, sec. 288.

288. It shall not be lawful for any person to enclose any of the public grounds, as laid down in the said plat of the town of Franklin, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offense, and five dollars for each and every day that any of the said public grounds shall remain, in whole or in part, enclosed.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 3, sec. 110. 1872, ch. 322. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 162.
1916, sec. 243. 1928, sec. 289.

289. It shall not be lawful for any person to cut any of the live growing trees off said public grounds, nor deaden them, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every offense.