local Board of Health, to maintain proceedings in equity to enjoin the commission, maintenance or continuance of nuisance of any kind affecting health.

1908, ch. 587, sec. 132K. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 272. 1928, sec. 318.

318. Nothing in any of the foregoing provisions relating to the preservation of the public health in Baltimore County shall be taken as in anywise repealing or as in substitution for any provisions of the Public General Laws relating to health, except and only in so far as any of the aforegoing sections are inconsistent therewith.

1912, ch. 157, sec. 132L. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 273. 1928, sec. 319.

319. Subject to the conditions and restrictions hereinafter contained, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall have full power and authority to establish sewerage or drainage systems in said county whenever in their opinion public welfare or convenience may so require; and shall further have power to provide by reasonable regulations for the proper maintenance, preservation, protection, examination, inspection and repair of the same, whether on public or private property, all such regulations to be subject to approval by the State Board of Health of Maryland, and when so approved, to have all the force and effect of law. The power so delegated shall be taken to include the power to open, alter, enlarge, or straighten, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, any sewer or drain, public or private, through any public or private property, to inspect and regulate house drainage and sewerage connections, both public and private, to condemn lands or other property necessary in the construction or maintenance of such sewerage system or systems and their appurtenances, and to dispose of sewerage so collected by contract or otherwise, to provide for the cost of such systems, and generally to do all other and such things and pass such regulations as may reasonably be necessary and proper to exercise the power and effect the objects herein specified, the words "Sewerage System" as used in this and succeeding sections to be taken to embrace all manner of methods for conducting and disposing of ordinary sewage and surface drainage, including household sewage and surface waters.

Welch v. Coglan, 126 Md. 10. Ludwig v. Balto. Co., 131 Md. 353.

1912, ch. 157, sec. 132M. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 274. 1928, sec. 320.

320. Said Commissioners shall further have full power and authority to provide by regulations, subject to approval by the State Board of Health as aforesaid, for the taking of any private property or property rights of any kind which may reasonably be necessary for any of the purposes specified in this Act, including the acquisition of property or property rights for the disposition of sewage, provided, however, that such regulations shall contain appropriate provisions for notice to the owner or owners of such property or rights, an opportunity to be heard and the payment of compensation for property or property rights so taken, and also for an
