

Article 51, Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, and on the poll books of the several election districts of said county that shall be last filed in the clerk's office of said court, provided for in the preceding section, a panel to consist of the names of two hundred (200) male persons to be fairly and impartially selected by said judges, with special reference to the intelligence, sobriety and integrity of such persons and without the least reference to their political opinions, to be known as the petit jury panel, provided, however, that no person shall be selected and placed upon such panel as a juror who shall not have arrived at the age of twenty-five years or who is over seventy years of age, Judges of the Orphans' Court of said county, delegates, coroners, and constables during their continuance in office; and also school masters, physicians, pharmacists and ministers of the gospel shall be exempt from attendance as jurors; and of the names of such persons when so selected, a list shall be made and a certificate thereto appended by the said judges that the said list of names has been duly selected in conformity with and according to the spirit and intent of this Article, and which said list and certificates shall be filed with the clerk of the said court and by him preserved as other proceedings of said court are kept; and no property qualification shall be required in any juror drawn as herein provided.

1929, ch. 339, sec. 391B.

391B. That in the selection of a panel to consist of two hundred (200) male persons as provided for in the preceding section, and to be known as the petit jury panel, the total of two hundred names shall be selected from the fifteen election districts of said county in the following proportions: thirty names from District No. 1, ten names from District No. 2, eight names from District No. 3, eight names from District No. 4, two names from District No. 5, two names from District No. 6, three names from District No. 7, fifteen names from District No. 8, thirty names from District No. 9, two names from District No. 10, fifteen names from District No. 11, thirteen names from District No. 12, sixteen names from District No. 13, sixteen names from District No. 14, and thirty names from District No. 15, 1929, ch. 339, sec. 391C.

391C. It shall be the duty of the Judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, not less than fifteen days before the commencement of each term of said court, in the presence of such practicing members of the bar of said court as shall think proper to attend, notice of the time and place having been first given to said bar through the crier of said court, to proceed to select from the list last furnished by the clerk of the County Commissioners of said county, provided for in Section 6, Article 51, Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, and on the poll books of the several election districts of said county that shall be returned and filed in the clerk's office of said court, provided for in the preceding section, a panel to consist of the names of one hundred (100) male persons to be