

County as jurors, and fifteen cents for each mile over five miles for going to and returning from said court, once in each term, to be paid by the Treasurer of Baltimore County; and the County Commissioners shall levy annually such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses and charges for the succeeding year for the attendance of jurors summoned to the Circuit Court for said county.*

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1904, ch. 70. B. Co. C. (1908), sec. 200. 1918, ch. 376. B. Co. C. (1916), sec. 312. 1928, sec. 392.

392. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in Baltimore County, that is to say:

For Election District No. 1, eight justices of the peace and four constables.

For Election District No. 2, five justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 3, eight justices of the peace and four constables.

For Election District No. 4, four justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 5, four justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 6, four justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 7, four justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 8, six justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 9, eleven justices of the peace and five constables; one of whom shall reside in Towson.

For Election District No. 10, three justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 11, five justices of the peace and six constables.

For Election District No. 12, three justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 13, three justices of the peace and three constables.

For Election District No. 14, five justices of the peace and two constables.

For Election District No. 15, eight justices of the peace and three constables.

But the County Commissioners may, in their discretion, upon the expiration of the terms of the constables, who are in office at the time of the passage of this Act, or who may hereafter be appointed under this Act, appoint a less number of constables for any election district than the number hereinbefore named; provided that there shall always be at least one constable in each of said election districts.

*Sec. 2 of ch. 339, Acts of 1929, repeals all laws inconsistent therewith.
